Plum Creek Children's Literacy Festival

We will be attending the Plum Creek Children's Literacy Festival on Friday, September 20 at Concordia University in Seward. Even though it is held on a Friday, we invite and encourage our Kindergarten students to join us. Students will be meeting authors, playing games, and participating in other activities all designed to develop their love for reading and writing. In both classrooms, we are already reading books by the authors we will get to meet!

Please visit www.cune.edu/plumcreek see all of the authors that will be at this year's festival. Lower grades students will be meeting Stephen Savage and Lita Judge and upper grade students will meet Lin Oliver, Barbara O'Connor, and Keklaa Magoon, who is filling in for RIta Williams Garcia. Students may bring money to purchase a book.

Students will need to pack a picnic lunch for the day as we will eat outside weather permitting.

Misty Eberle, Nicole Bauer, and Mrs. Lenz will drive.

OUR FIRST LADIES AID LUNCH IS THE WEDNESDAY. THE MENU IS SLOPPY JOES AND NACHOS ALONG WITH OTHER SIDES. STUDENTS DO NOT NEED TO PACK A LUNCH, BUT SHOULD PACK WATER BOTTLES AND MORNING SNACKS. STUDENTS HAVE THE OPTION OF PACKING THEIR OWN LUNCH IF THEY PREFER.
